The Dimmer View

BY MAX GOODWIN

More than 450 "grass-roots" editors across the nation were asked recently to give congress advice on how to get out of the economic mess they had us in earlier this year.

We were one of the publications so interrogated. Our first reaction was one of pleased flattery until we remembered our own definition of a grass-roots publication. That is one where the owner is up to his neck in hock to the local bank usually by his mismanagement of the newspapers' skimpy income. Now they ask these non-financial wizards to help solve the country's financial woes.

In any event, here is what these editors said:

Don't cut taxes . . . 70 per cent.

Don't extend unemployment insurance . . . 78 per cent.

Don't enact public works . . . 62 per cent.

Keep government out of it and let private industry work it out . . . 65 per cent.

Some of the GR editors said:

S. Pasadena (Calif.) Review: "Federal spending only makes taxload heavier."

Nashville (Ark.) News: "Bureaucratic medicine merely creates another ailment. The cure always becomes worse than the ailment."

Canton (Mass.) Journal: "Help needy, willing men . . . too many couples now work a racket of one working and the other drawing unemployment benefits."

Anderson (Mo.) News-Review: "Whimpering for government to carry burdens we should carry ourselves has gone too far."

Birmingham (Mich.) Eccentric: "Favor tax cuts mostly for hope it will 'trigger' public to demand future economies."

Belton (S. C.) News: "Decrease giving away our tax dollars for Foreign Aid—this is like throwing it down the drain."

Madison (Fla.) Enterprise: "I favor cutting taxes and government expenses both."

Pekin (Ind.) Chariot: "We need some brave Congressman to give us honest tax cuts by lopping ten billion off the federal budget instead of wasting it. How can Washington cry emergency while there is a graft, public works contracts go at figures far higher than private contracts, millions are spent for recruiting boys who would have to go to the service anyway, money is thrown away sorting town mail that goes to each home anyway and a thousand other silly practices send

THREE OUTS—These youthful baseball fans are rooting for the Lemon Grove little leaguers from all appearances as Rickey Walsh indicates the number of outs to an interested—and somewhat wide-eyed listener—Mitzi Cremer. Rickey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Walsh, 7848 Lincoln, and Mitzi is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Cremer, 8540 Troy. Interested onlookers in background are, left, David Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cooper, 7943 Lincoln, and Michelle Cremer, Mitzi's sister. The foursome was caught by the Review camera as they cool off with pop and cookies recently. (Review Photo 1098)

'FOR SALE' SIGN DRAWS NEIGHBORS' SURPRISE

Considerable interest was being shown this week by neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Boerama, 7404 Daytona street when they tacked signs on both sides of their home "For Sale—Colored only."

Mrs. Boerama, 53, said she and her husband reached the decision to sell to other than Caucasians because workmen on nearby duplexes nearing completion "guffawed" at her each time she appeared on the street or in her yard. She also told this newspaper that one workman, driving past in his auto "leered" at her.

She said she didn't want to sell her home at all but felt she could not get the respect of the workmen in her neighborhood without doing something drastic to attract attention to her plight. "This is the only way I can fight back," she said.

The matter took form four years ago she said when the contractors building the adjacent apartments had part in building a house nearby on West street. Recently, a water line connecting the house was found to be on the Boerama property, she said. The pipe was removed at her insistence.

When the same contractor started building in the neighborhood again the workmen began "ridiculing" her, she charged. Last week she slapped one of two carpenters who were sitting in an auto nearby, eating lunch. She said they were laughing at her. The contractor confirmed the fact that one of his men was slapped by Mrs. Boerama. He would make no other comment, however.

Church Protests Denial

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—Denial of a permit for a baseball field for Skyline Wesleyan Methodist church, Lemon Grove, by the county planning commission is being protested by church officials.

The appeal for a hearing before Supervisors was sent to the latter body Tuesday, but too late to get on that day's agenda. It will come before the Board next week, with a public hearing to be held sometime in August.

The Skyline field is being used by Little League teams. Application for a permit was made after the field was in operation. Church officials said they didn't know a permit was needed, and neighboring property owners protested.

Judicial District Wins Final Okay

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—The ordinance to make effective addition of the former Homeland Judicial District to the El Cajon district was approved by supervisors Tuesday with Supervisor De Graff Austin still protesting.

The change in district boundaries will make a two judge court in El Cajon and Gov. Goodwin Knight is expected to name a judge to aid Judge R. Fenton Garfield soon after the ordinance becomes effective in 30 days.

Austin was critical of Garfield in his objections to the ordinance. He said the El Cajon judge had been "drumming up trade" for his court, thus "creating an artificial load of cases."

As he had before, Austin asked supervisors to wait until the state judicial council made its study of San Diego's courts before voting the boundary change.

Acting chairman of supervisors Robert C. Dent reminded Austin that a communication from the judicial council had been on the board docket that morning, with the council reporting it could not begin its survey for several months.

The ordinance adding the Homeland area to the El Cajon district first re-established the Homeland district, which was dissolved more than a year ago. Then the Dulzura, Jamacha, Jamul, Lemon Grove, Casa de Oro and Spring Valley areas were added to El Cajon, except for three Lemon Grove precincts put into the San Diego Judicial District.

Luther N. Hussey, now a San Diego municipal judge, but formerly justice for the Homeland area, resides in one of the three precincts. Because his precinct will be in San Dego, Hussey will not have to move to keep his judgeship.

TV STAR HERE THIS WEEKEND

Johnny Downs, famed TV personality, will be at Lemon Grove's Food Basket market Saturday this week from 10 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. Downs will have special awards and gifts for all the children visiting at the store during those hours.

Sanitarians Check Pool

County health department sanitarians determined there was no connection between a stagnating pool of water near 7430 Beryl in Lemon Grove and an outbreak of illness among that neighborhood's children, Dr. Sydney Clark, assistant director of the health department, reports.

Dr. Clark said a further check had revealed the pool was caused by run-off from lawn watering operations and he said it had dried up "almost completely" after a few days. He said sanitarians rechecked the spot after additional complaints were received.

Playoffs Set For LL Field

Lemon Grove's little league activities turn to district playoffs this week on Friday and Saturday when the local group hosts the district 33 championships games at the Monterey Heights field.

More than 3000 fans are expected to attend the Friday games and championship playoff Saturday. Carmen Ursillo, league president, 'reports the first playoff game will be at 2:30 p.m. Friday with the second game following at 5 p.m. The championship will be played at 5 p.m. Saturday.

Ursillo said league members are hoping for a good turnout of local little league fans to support the local entries.

Polish Flag Story Topic

Lemon Grove men's club members, many of whom have wondered about the Polish flag which flies above a single grave at the College avenue-Federal boulevard intersection, will have a chance to hear about it Friday when the club meets at Michael's at noon.

The program will be presented by Mrs. Thaddeus Sledzinski, wife of one of two Lemon Grove brothers whose mother lies buried beneath the flag mast. The mother is Princess Filomena Sledzinski of a royal Polish house.

Mrs. Sledzinski, prior to her marriage, was exiled by Russia and spent several years as a worker in Siberian mines.

She will discuss the royal ancestry and tell of a fabulous fortune awaiting the Sledzinski family . . . if they can figure a way to get it away from Russian authorities.

The program will be informal. All Grove men are invited to attend.

Teen-Age Dance Set For Matadors

The second Friday night dance held for teen-agers at Mt. Miguel Quad was well attended. The young people were so enthusiastic the committee decided to go ahead with the original plans of having a dance once a week, each Friday for the remainder of the summer.

The dance committee is a part of the newly formed Matador Club, which is comprised of parents of students of Mt. Miguel. The Matador Club is backing the summer project.

The Velv-tones will once again furnish the music. Dancing from 8 to 12. All teen-agers of the area are welcome. For further information, contact Mrs. Nat Mitchell, HO 42646.

Gym Soundproofing Project Set For Hi

Herluf Brydegaard, architect, who designed the Mt. Miguel high school, was assigned July 14 to design the Mt. Miguel high school gym for acoustical treatment, according to Lewis Smith, superintendent of the Grossmont high school district. The move was made because of the noise in the gym. The treatment will allow the school to hold assemblies there.

The Quinn carpet company was awarded the contract at a cost of $2,200.

DEMOLISHERS—These members of the Lemon Grove junior chamber of commerce will soon tear down the structure they are here inspecting at the corner of Washington and Adams. The old barn has made it difficult for autoists to see approaching traffic in the cross street. Andrew Jensen, the barn owner, recently gave the jaycees permission to clear the corner. Committee members shown inspecting the structure are, from left, Ronald N. Grabanski, Bill Van Dusen, Lloyd Branham, Keith Bruington and Joe Payson. (Review Photo 1099)

Teacher Studies Lessons In Summer For Fall Work

What happens to school teachers in the summertime? Well, they go back to school. Seems in this day and age it's more than meets the eye to keep ahead of—say, second graders.

Now, take Miss Priscilla DeForest, second grade teacher at Audubon elementary in Lomita Village. She's back to book reading and a course at San Diego state just so her second grade class of this fall will be that much sharper when she hones them through the nine-month term.

While area youngsters are having a summer of fun, the teachers are busy with projects aimed at fall classes. However, not to deter those interested in teaching careers because of the three-month summer vacation, the extra work is a volueer assignment aimed at gaining credits toward a master's degree usually. The teachers take a course or two each summer to not only sharpen wits but contribute towards the ultimate in teacher's certificates.

Miss DeForest is also planning some recreational activities for her summer schedule . . . just as other area teachers. She and her sister will take a month-long trip through national parks on a camping expedition.

While teachers are travelling and taking lessons, the youngsters are getting a summer's worth of relaxation away from the brain factories. However, according to both teachers and pupils, the fall season will be welcomed and a return to class is not a bad prospect for all concerned.

Other school teachers have "turned the tables" on their students this summer as they too, are attending classes to increase their knowledge and ability to teach. Four Lemon Grove teachers are enrolled in a workshop course at San Diego state college. They are Nancy Tuthill, Mrs. Winifred Stone, Marjorie J. Luedke and William Schell.

The workshop, which began June 30 and will continue through August 8, stresses community influences on learning and curriculum planning.

Participants in the course, led by Dr. William Jack Stone of the San Diego city schools, select a project of their own interest and develop it through the course of the six week session. Local teachers are working on lesson plans, teaching aids and various methods of improving instruction during the coming school year.

LG Jaycees Hear Group At NC Meet

Members of the Lemon Grove junior chamber of commerce attended the district ten orientation meeting at National City last Sunday. A. M. Ghahremani, president of the California jaycees presided and ten other state and national officers were present for the meeting. Ron Grabanski, LG JC publicity chairman, reports.

William Van Dusen of the LG group was named "My True Security" chairman for San Diego & Imperial counties. My True Security is a class one project endorsed by the national and state chambers giving high school students a chance to compete locally, state-wide and nationally in essay contests.

Joe Payson was presented the national award and commendation for exceptional jaycee activity in the field of civic service.

Value Days Gains Praise

Lemon Grove's business people this week said the Value Day promotion of last weekend was one of the most successful sales features in local business history. Some merchants said they had traded business over the same period a year ago.

"There was certainly no indication of a lack of buying power in this community," one businessman said. "We've seen what cooperation among the business people can do and I hope the Lemon Grove Boosters make this sort of promotion a regular feature for local shoppers."

From all indications similar promotions will be in the offing for shoppers here during the fall season.

Grove Man In Workshop At College

Twenty-one states including Alaska, are rfpresented among 62 professional choral directors enrolled in the 6th annual workshop in choral art at San Diego state college. Bobbie Nesheim, 2337 Washington street, Lemon Grove, is a workshop member.

The graduate coures is taught by Roger Wagner, internationally-known choral conductor, and Julius Herford, musicologist at Union Theological Seminary, Westminster Choir College, and Boston Univesity.

Herford described the workshop as the only course of its kind in the United States which coordinates intensive score study with rehearsal and performance.

The workshop is closely allied with the San Diego symphony. Under Wagner's direction, students will perform with the symphony in Berlioz' "Damnation of Faust" this week and Beethoven's "Missa Solenis" Auguts 19, both in Balboa Bowl. Workshop members will also perform a Bach program August 1.

ALL-STARS—These Lemon Grove area youths represented their little league in playoffs this week against the Skyliners and Encanto entries. After swamping the Skyliners Monday they lost by a one-run margin, 2 to 1, to Encanto Tuesday which now enters the district playoffs at the Lemon Grove Monterey Heights field Friday and Saturday this week. Shown here, in back, are Coach Al Burke and Manager Bob Kreiger. Back row of players, from left, are F. Selvig, G. Castaneda, M. Kohler, H. Estes, L. Clark, Bill Kellison, B. Westover and P. Blythe. Front row, from left, are R. Lidia, D. Boggs, B. Allen, F. Arnold, S. Strom, B. Taylor, R. Kepner, J. Jacobsmeier and K. Burke. (Review Photo 1099)

Playhouse Sets New Drama Next

"A View From The Bridge," Arthur Miller's most recent international triumph, is scheduled next at La Jolla Playhouse, opening it two-week run July 28. It will follow the current comedy hit, "Bell, Book and Candle," starring Felicia Farr, Scott Forbes, and Darryl Hickman, which will close Saturday night.

Written by one of America's foremost playwrites, "A View From the Bridge" carries all the dramatic wallop that made such of his plays as "Death of A Salesman" a favorite as a stage play as well as a film. A suspenseful, powerful drama, it is a gripping story of the New York waterfront.

For his La Jolla production producer Lamont Johnson has chosen Martin Balsom, Rita Moreno, Jeff Corey, Mary Carver, Steve Joyce, and Robert Gist, with Sherman Marks directing and Zvi Geyra responsible for the sets and lighting.

Contractors Add New Members

With the addition of 23 members since the first of the year, membership in the San Diego Chapter, Associated General Contractors of America, now totals 341, according to R. J. Hortie, president of the local group.

Hortie said there now are 30 active members, 81 affiliate members, 18 associates and five in the specialty category.

New active members include O. L. Carpenter, Lemon Grove.

In the associate section, the new members include Vinnell Constructors, Lemon Grove.

JW Group Leaves Here For NY Meet

About 300 of Jehovah's Witnesses from the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley congregation will attend an international convention in New York city Sunday through August 3.

Edgar A. Flinn, presiding minister of the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley congregation, in announcing the plans of the local delegates, said a limited program of meetings will be held in the Kingdom Hall, La Mesa, since most of those in charge of various features will be attending the Christian assembly. Douglas J. Fraser, an assistant minister, will be in charge of the local group during the convention.

Flinn said the local delegates attending the international gathering will benfit greatly not only from the rich spiritual provisions, but also from Christian association with Witnesses from foreign lands. The convention, he said, will further the understanding and good will among the various races and nationalities of Jehovah's Witnesses, and will also demonstrate to the world how the Bible message and Christian living can unite people from all walks of life, regardless of race or other backgrounds that tend to divide the world. Only common interest in the pure worship of the Creator, Jehovah God, can do this, he said.

When questioned about the expected attendance, Watchtower officials in New York pointed to the record attendance of 165,000 at the 1953 international convention in New York City's Yankee Stadium. At that time several overflow areas provided space for the Witnesses and interested persons. Yankee Stadium has again been secured, but because of the cramped quarters of the previous assembly the Polo Grounds will be used in addition. The program will be presented by the same participants following the first presentation in Yankee Stadium.

Most of those from the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley-La Mesa congregation will be staying in private homes in New York city and nearby areas. All hotel accommodations will be filled, according to the Watchtower rooming committee, and the majority of attenders will be placed in homes following a gigantic house-to-house effort to find available accommodations.

Navy Reserve Program Offers Plan

A limited number of pay billets are opening in the new San Diego Selected Naval reserve, according to Commander Rollin Ormiston, USNR-R, commanding officer of the unit.

"Final selections of officers for the unit has been made and this group is now screening applications for the Petty Officers ratings," Ormiston said last week. "We are particularly anxious to have applications from the Navy veterans who hold a petty officer rating of electrician, gunner, boilerman (BT), machinist or quartermaster," he continued.

Commander Ormiston pointed out that with people watching their dollars closely these days that this is a good opportunity for Navy veterans to pick up extra money. He said that men who are chosen for Selected Naval Reserve will receive four full days pay while drilling only two days each month. He said it is one of the opportunities where a man can get double time these days.

"The Selected Naval Reserve will cruise one week-end each month on board a destroyer escort out of San Diego area," Ormiston said. "The drills will be an exciting weekend at sea, with the weekend drill commencing on Saturday morning and ending Sunday afternoon.

The first drill was held July 19 and 20. The next meeting will be either at the Naval Reserve Training Center or aboard a Reserve destroyer escort. For further information call ACademy 2-6411, extension 387, or visit the Naval Reserve Training Center, Harbor drive at Lowell street, San Diego.

Methodists Set School Next Week

Vacation church school, sponsored by the Lemon Grove Methodist church, will begin July 28 from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and continue through August 8, under the guidance of Mrs. Leona Bowersox, vacation church school director.

Registration will be at the church during regular Sunday school and worship hours and a special registration from 3 to 4 p.m. Registration fee will be 50 cents per child or $1.00 per family.

The theme of the entire program is The Life of Jesus interpreted for each age group, from 4 year olds through junior high.

Ground breaking ceremonies for the new educational unit of three classrooms were held July 6 with Rev. Don Cooke officiating. This unit represents the beginning of the program which will include five such units when finally completed. Two of the rooms will be 20' x 24' and the third 20' x 32'. Jim Bernard, architect, is the designer and Ralph McCorquodale, contractor will head the construction work which is to be volunteer labor for the most part. Completion is planned for fall and expected to be in use by that time to accomodate the increased enrollment which is evident each Sunday.

Auxiliary Sets Meet Time Table

The La Mesa unit 282 of the American Legion Auxiliary will meet Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the American Legion hall. Previously the meetings have been called for 8 p.m. but for the convenience of the majority of members the time has been advanced. Following a short business meeting a social hour will be held.

July 31, the past presidents club of the unit will enjoy its annual picnic feeting at Shrine camp in the Laguana mountains. Mmes: John D. Haslam and A. J. Benbrook have offered the hospitality of their trailers. They will be assisted by Mmes; Ronald A. Crawford and LeRoy Bailey. Anyone in need of transportation is asked to contact the club president, Mrs. Howard Charman, HI 2-2467.

Projects for the club are a Christmas gift program for women veterans who were disabled while serving in the armed services. Also contributing to a State nurses scholarship fund sponsored by the Department of California. The past presidents also play an important part in assisting the unit in obtaining and retaining its high standard of membership.

Shearer Speaks On School Public Relations Programs

William K. (Bill) Shearer this week told a group of San Diego state college students that there are 11 rules for school districts in getting along with the public.

"1. As long as the schools are public, school administrators must remember that every person has a right to be interested in the district's educational program whether or not that person agrees with all of the school program.

"2. The schools should reflect the people, not direct them.

"3. No public money should be used to influence public opinion.

"4. The principal purpose of schools is to educate children. If the schools are doing a good job of it, that is the best public relations program the schools can have.

"5. Elaborate public relations devices and hired publicity agents are not necessary if the schools are doing a good job.

"6. Appeasement of parents, excused in the name of public relations, is no substitute for doing a good job.

"7. A happy staff helps mold, indirectly, good public relations.

"8. Schools get into trouble with the public when they do not use funds wisely, by engaging in instructional and construction non-essentials.

"9. Schools also get into trouble when they present controversial material in an unfair manner.

"10. The schools should stay out of politics, particularly board of trustees elections and partisan elections.

"11. Informed people cannot help but resent efforts to transfer control of the schools from local level to levels of government remote from the people."

Shearer spoke July 16 to the educational leadership class, a group studying school administration at San Diego state college.

"It is important to remember what the schools are, and what their principal job is," he said. "The schools are houses of learning and their principal purpose is academic training. Schools seldom get into trouble on building classrooms and basic academic training. But they do get into trouble when they go afield from these basic programs.

"In a free society where government is supposed to represent the people, a government that tells the people rather than listening to them is out of place. When a school district hires a publicity man to tell the people, it has the cart before the horse."

Brown Group Gets Start By LG Demos

The Lemon Grove Pat Brown for Governor Club got underway here this week with Mrs. Geneva Engelstad named to head local activities.

The new club is a state-wide organization with headquarters in San Francisco. Mrs. Maryan Shaw of El Cajon is general chairman of the San Diego county-wide Brown for Governor club, which has as its goal 3000 members.

Ernest L. Buchanan, a San Francisco business man who originated the club, was in San Diego this week to consult with Mrs. Englestad and other vice-chairmen.

Persons who donate from $2 to $20 are given membership cards and sign a register which is to become a personal possession of Brown's, Mrs. Engelstad said.

"The average person can't possibly take part in the $50 and $100 a plate dinners honoring Fat Brown," the vice-chairman explained, "but still he has his own views on elections and feels he should have a direct part in politics. His membership in the Brown for Governor club gives him that for only $2, and at the same time give important financial support to Attorney General Brown's campaign.

Band Backed By Teachers

"We have a unique opportunity to show the world the cultural achievements of America's system of free public high schools," Arthur F. Corey, executive secretary of the California Teachers Association said recently. He urged public support for efforts of Burlingame high school's string orchestra to play at the Brussels world fair.

The 57-piece Burlingame orchestra, under the direction of Lawrence M. Short, is the only public high school group of its kind in the United States that has been invited to appear at the fair, Corey pointed out. About $40,000 are needed for the group to make the trip.

VISTA LA MESA SERVICES SET

It is estimated about 50 delegates from Vista La Mesa Christian church will be attending all or part of the annual convention of Christian churches in Long Beach, July 30 to August 3.

The Rev. Wm. T. Nichols' sermon topic for the 9:45 and 11 a.m. services next Sunday, July 27, will be Is It Good News?

Christian Youth Fellowship will hold a workshop at 7:00 p.m. and go into the areas of worship, study, enlistment, service, recreation and administration, under guidance of Mr. and Mrs. Volney Hansen, counselors.

Insurance Man Attends Meeting

Edward J. Purtzer, agent for Business Life of Nebraska in Lemon Grove is attending the company's biennial convention this week at Breezy Point Lodge, near Brainerd, Minnesota. The Lodge is located in 320 acres of the finest northland woods and has its own private golf course, beach, fishing, boating and trap shooting facilities.

The convention, which runs from July 20 to July 24 is being attended by over 450 Bankers Life representatives and their families. Qualification for attendance has been over a two year period, and only the company's top producers gain this recognition.

Voters Urged To Register Now

"If you have not registered for the November 4 general election, you should do so at once," says Mrs. Charlotte Phillips of 3546 Helix street, Spring Valley.

Mrs. Phillips, a deputy registrar, will be registering at her home until August 11.

our tax dollar down the rat hole?"

A local business man cited some basis for complaint as co-op merchandise outlets become more numerous.

He said that some co-ops are able to stay beyond the toils of the BBB and the law on their claim that they add a small percentage mark up to their cost price.

Says he: At least one co-op group has formed a buying-selling organization. This organization sells to the co-op at inflated wholesale prices. The co-op then truthfully advertises it sells for its cost, plus 3 or 4 per cent mark-up.' The co-op, he points out, may not make anything on the item but he says their buying-selling group is getting fat.

The life of the editors of the nation's 8,268 weeklies is not always filled with adulation and love from among his community members. Take, for example, Joseph Wilcox Dunn, editor of The Princess Anne (Virginia Beach, Va.) FREE-PRESS. According to the current NEWSWEEK magazine, Editor Dunn has been stoned, blackjacked and unsuccessfully sued for libel four times in his efforts to wipe out the Kellam racketeers of Princess Anne.

Dunn's FREE-PRESS (circulation 2,300) took on the twelve Kellam brothers who have dominated the politics of Princess Anne County for the past 25 years. In expose stories and editorials, all of which he writes laboriously in longhand, he has accused the county "machine" of allowing gambling and racketeering to flourish.

Dunn's persistent crusades have made him highly unpopular in some quarters. He has been sued for libel four times, though never successfully. He has been blackjacked, stoned, and threatened. Three years ago, the local police chief, defended by lawyer Richard B. Kellam and tried in a court presided over by Judge Floyd Kellam, was acquitted of charges that he offered a boxer $500 to beat up Dunn. Two years ago, Dunn himself sued for libel in a Norfolk court and won a $30,000 verdict against the Virginia Sun-News (a weekly of 4,600 circulation, partly owned by Richard Kellam), which had called Dunn a "fugitive from the truth."

Dunn has lost money on The Free Press and has failed to wreck the county machine, which swept the local election this spring. But his campaigning has led to a crackdown on corruption. Last March Dunn wrote: "A few sneak gambling and liquor violations . . . are all that is left . . . of the lush rackets which . . . were estimated to be doing an annual business of $1.5 million.

This week, on the elm-shaded campus of Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, the publication and its editor was awarded the coveted Elijah P. Lovejoy Award for Courage in Journalism.

Vista La Mesa All-Stars Named

Vista La Mesa all stars named to play in this week's contests included Richard Degan, Kent Fisher, Gary Swindell, Bobby Lanier, Ronald Lisa, Pat Troyer, Dennis Carnvale, David Nelson, Steve Miner, Robert Quary, Charlie Johanson.

SV Chamber Gets Sign On Freeway

After many months of waiting for a sign on the freeway to indicate Spring Valley, one has been placed just south of the overhead sign coming off onto Campo road. The Spring Valley chamber of commerce passed a motion early last year to request the state highway department to place such a sign on the freeway.

At the July 14 meeting of the chamber of commerce board, a motion was carried to have the floor in the kitchen of the hall laid with a covering. The buildings and grounds committee will handle the details.

Chet Smith, treasurer and chairman of the Spring Valley survey committee made a short report on the progress being made by the San Diego State college Public Affairs Research Institute. The survey will determine what method of local government would be best for the area. The target date set for the report is August 15. Smith said that the report will be available to all organizations and individuals in the area. Interested persons should call the Spring Valley chamber of commerce for further information; HO 6-5736.

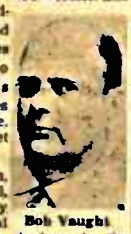
PICTURE TALK

by Bob Vaught

BLACK-EYED SUSAN

"Advice on photographic problems?" That's my job, and when teenage Tommy came running in with a problem of the heart, I solved his problem in stride.

"Look at this awful picture of Susan," he said. "It's terrible. She has such beautiful eyes — and all the pictures show, is two black holes where her eyes ought to be. How can I get better shots?"



Bob Vaught

"Calm down, Tommy," I said, mustering my best professional air. "The deep shadows in the pictures are caused by too much lighting contrast. A typical problem, my boy, during these sunny July days."

"But what can I do?"

"Put a flash attachment on your camera."

"A flash attachment? But I take pictures outdoors — in the sunlight."

"Tommy, one of the best ways to fill-in facial shadows is to use flash outdoors," I explained.

I don't know whether the relationship between Tommy and Susan will blossom into a lifelong affair. But I do know he got some really fine pictures after he started using a Kodak Flash Attachment.

P. S. Susan's eyes are beautiful! I've finished batch after batch of prints of them.

Contractor Gets Chance To Repay

James Dahl, Spring Valley contractor, who was convicted by Superior Court Judge William P. Mahedy April 1 of grand theft of funds entrusted to him by Mrs. Salley Murphy of Coronado, was put on ten years probation July 17. He was ordered to satisfy $14,470 in liens against Mrs. Murphy's home. She is the widow of the late Capt. John Edwin Murphy, who was killed in a car accident in 1946.

Dahl has been ordered by the court to pay Mrs. Murphy $5,000 within 90 days and up to $75 a month until the liens are satisfied. He cannot enter the contracting business while on probation. His attorney said Dahl has been working for another contractor.

Since he was convicted Dahl's sentencing was delayed in order that attorneys determine the exact amount to be given to Mrs. Murphy. He could have been sentenced to prison for a term of one to ten years, which is time from grand theft, but consideration was given as this was his first offense.

New Station Opens Here

A new Hancock service station opens Friday this week at 1280 Palm when Grant Jenkins, station operator, opens his doors. Jenkins said this week his station will be open from 6:30 a.m. until midnight seven days a week.

Jenkins, who formerly lived and worked in La Mesa, is a San Diego high graduate and has two boys at Golden Avenue school in Lemon Grove. His third son is a pre-schooler.

Civil Group Sets Potluck Picnic

The El Cajon valley chapter 669 of the national association of retired civil employes will have a potluck meeting August 2 at El Monte park in Lakeside.

Those planning to attend should bring one "dish" of some sort, club leaders report. All civil service retirees are invited to attend.

Chest X-Ray Unit To Move

Persons will be unable to obtain chest X-rays at the Tuberculosis Clinic, 521 West G St., in San Diego, on Thursday, July 24.

Dr. J. E. Aaser, director of the San Diego department of public health said yesterday the clinic's large X-ray unit is bein moved to the new Primary Health center just north of Civic Center which is scheduled to open on August 4.

While the X-ray unit is being moved, chest X-rays will be taken at the clinic with the Department's mobile X-ray unit on days when the Chestmobile is not assigned to health centers.

Store Marks Eighth Year With Sales

Marsi's Stores for Women, in Lemon Grove, with other locations in El Cajon and Chula Vista are now holding a three-store anniversary sale celebrating the completion of another successful business year.

Long a planning, this two-week bargain event was designed to bring shoppers the very most for their money. Except for fair-trade items, Marsi's entire stock of new, seasonable merchandise is currently on sale; reductions range as high as 50 per cent.

Thus, virtually all the nationally-advertised apparel which has made Marsi's a San Diego county fashion leader, is available at reduced prices. This eighth anniversary sale is Marsi's way of saying thank you for patronage during the past year. Shoppers will find it one of the season's greatest bargain opportunities. The sale will end July 31.

On motion of Member Armstrong, seconded by Member Ambrose the following resolution is adopted:

WHEREAS, the San Diego Gas & Electric Company is desirous of securing an easement for an electric pole line over, along and across certain real property owned by the Lemon Grove School District of San Diego County, California, and hereinafter described, and Provided, however, that in the event the use of said real property for electric pole line purposes is discontinued, said property shall revert to the Lemon Grove School District of San Diego County, California.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a public meeting be held by the Board at its regular place of meeting, Lemon Grove Education Center, 8025 Lincoln Street, Lemon Grove, California on August 4, 1958, at 8:30 o'clock p.m., at which time all persons interested may appear and show cause if any they have why said dedication should not be made.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Seems that a group of community workers, interested in the future of this country and of the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley community youth in particular, worked hard to start a series of youth activities in the area. Admittedly, the area has very few places where the youngsters can collect en masse for dancing and recreation. The swimming pools are overcrowded, the beaches are sometimes inaccessable, and chaperones not always available.

By hard work and loss of telephoning, the committee The Matador Parent's Club (a group of Mount Miguel high school parents interested in juvenile decency) organized a dance, secured permission to use the quad at the high school, hired an orchestra, The Velvetones, and invited the youngsters to attend.

The young people came—some sixty strong—a quiet, mannerly group of youngsters; also the parents came, quite a few, to chaperone, sell tickets and to pick up deficit of the dance orchestra. Then the police came. Someone in the neighborhood had turned in a riot call. The policemen were sympathetic, interested and encouraging. But, they said, the music will have to be quieter.

It's an odd thing about our young people. Born in an era of total war, living in a world of tension and sitting on the edge of total atomic destruction, soothed in infancy with a radio instead of a lullaby, tended by a TV instead of a story book today's youth likes its music loud and clear, above the noises of the jets, high powered motors and automobile horns. The music should be strung enough to lean on; it's a release, an escape, and good music is the most. That's bad? Listen to Grand Opera in the exciting passages—the hundred instruments, with the voice of the singers soaring around and over the orchestra. That's a riot, too.

There's no moral to this. The parents want to keep on with the dances. The music will necessarily be quiet enough to sooth the asthetic ears of the oldsters while they discuss such questions as what to do about juvenile delinquency.

Dear Editor:

That post office item in last week's Review concerning the charge now made on letters received with insufficient postage and the fate of those little birth announcements caught my attention. With regular letter and air mail rates changing soon, it will be up to us all to put the right stamp on each piece of mail we send out.

Oddly enough, a few days later, I received a copy of the weekly paper published in the New Hampshire village where I was born and where I grew up. There was a write-up of the celebration the local post office officials had when they moved into a fine new building that week. Then the reporter took the reader back to some of the early days of postal changes that have come over the years.

I believe many of your readers might be interested in looking back a bit. For, actually, I don't think many of us give much thought to the post office in its national scope. We hear all sorts of gripes about how cumbersome the system is, how superior to ours, and we complain about the new and costlier stamps soon to be issued. But do we realize what a marvelous service the United States post office renders?

This New Hampshire village typical of all New England settlements, has a long history, going back to colonial days. In the early 1790's letter carriers or couriers covered their routes from town to town on horseback years earlier than the pony express which covered the far west.

The cost of sending a letter depended on how far it had to go. 30 to 60 miles cost eight cents. For the great distance of 500 miles the cost was 25 cents.

In 1847 the first postage stamps were issued and were received by the public with some hesitation. Envelopes did not exist. Youfolded your letter three times, leaving one fold a blank for the name and address . . .

To my mind, the realy big thing is air-mail. To be able to mail a letter to my son in Michigan Sunday night and to know that he will receive it Tuesday noon is to me, marvelous.

But the ideals of public service and honor for which the Post Office stands were formulated long years ago when this country was young.

Community Church Services To Be Given

"Will Lebanon and Jordan be in the Great Battle of Armageddon?" will be Rev. Josephine Hutchings' sermon at the Sunday morning services, starting at 11 a.m.

The Wednesday evening prayer meetings will continue with the study of the Book of Acts.

Rev. Hutchings says the Sunday school building is now getting a new coat of paint and work on the inside will soon start.

Margarita Guitelli, 61, Passes At SD Hospital

Recitation of the Rosary was held July 3, and requium mass the following day, for Mrs. Margarita Guitelli, 61, of 32 Twenty-first street, San Diego. She died in a San Diego hospital July 11.

Mrs. Guitelli was the sister of Mrs. Dolores Hurtado of 8910 Olive drive, Spring Valley. The two sisters had just buried their mother the week before.

God's Minute

REV. BAKKEN

"MANY CHRISTS"

Jesus, our Lord, warned us that there would be false Christs rising in the world. These offer false hopes. Some offer political utopies. Some offer salvation without repentance of sin. Some offer a sustitute for the Bible. Jesus alone offers forgiveness of sin and hope of eternal life. Jesus alone is the Savior of the Bible.

Grossmont Tax Boosted

Grossmont high school district tax will be increased nine cents for each $100 assessed valuation as the result of a budget of $5,181,596 for the coming school year, it was announced this week by Grossmont HSD Superintendent Lewis Smith.

The school board rejected Smith's request for $102,000 to be earmarked for salary increases up to 8 per cent. The approved budget allows for approximately 5 per cent increase.

Operating levy is up four cents to $1.17 but is lower by eight cents than a previous estimate made by Smith. He said few tax delinquencies and increased state apportionments permitted the lower cost. State funds were increased by a heavier attendance in adult and summer classes than had been anticipated.

Community Chest Sets New Goal

Approximately $2,139,703 is needed by the San Diego area Community Chest and its 49 agencies for 1959 operations, directors determined this week.

However, the board authorized its executive committee to study the figures with power to revise them.

The figure reached by the chest compares to $2,091,000 which the chest last year requested of the United Fund of San Diego county.

HEART RESEARCH FUND

Over $50,000 in medical research on heart disease, including $32,000 in specific grants to California researchers in San Diego, La Jolla and northern California, is scheduled for the next 12 months, the San Diego county heart association reports.

This represents the largest research budget in the history of the local heart group and is an increase of $10,760 over last year's budget, according to C. W. Greaves, president.

32,000,000 AMERICANS AVAIL THEMSELVES OF CHIROPRACTIC . . .

When a healing method has served a population twice the size of that of a major nation, it is something to be considered seriously. Such is the story of the extensive use of chiropractic—for 32,000,000 Americans have experienced the health benefits of this second largest healing profession. That's a figure twice Canada's population, which is 14,900,429.

DR. BARTON

Looking at it another way, it means 1 out of every 5 Americans knows the value of chiropractic, the practical way to health. Millions of these fine people in every strata of life have shared one experience. They have found the way to restored and improved health through chiropractic . . . the re-establishment of spinal normalcy and the regeneration to the nerve functions of their bodies. That was a significant event in their lives. These Americans in a democracy have freely chosen the physical, mechanical and neurological approach to healing. Their freedom to do so is as vital as the bulwark of a free press.

Dr. Benjamin Rush, a signer of the Delaration of Independence, said:

"The constitution of the Republic should make provision for medical freedom. To restrict the art of healing to one class of men and deny equal privilege to others will constitute the Bastille of medical science."

If there is particular information you want, write us or send for the book, "The Truth About Chiropractic."

THREE TRUTHS YOU SHOULD KNOW

- 550 Insurance Companies Recognize Chiropractic.
- 1 out of EVERY 5 Americans Avail Themselves of Chiropractic Health Services.

Mountain Fishing Trek Gets Two SV Men Lost

Some good advice to city folks who like to wander around the mountains comes from a former Spring Valley man. He says, "If you have a yen to hike around the mountains be sure there are two or more people in your party. You can easily get lost and the mountains all look alike especially at night."

The man, Frank Vultaggio, son of Andy Vultaggio of Andy's Market on Campo road and a friend, Ronald Wade of Lakeside, had a yen to go fishing. They heard Santa Ysabel creek is a good place. They left their wives at San Diego and drove out to the creek. This was on July 12, a Saturday afternoon.

Santa Ysabel creek crosses highway 78 north of Santa Ysabel, east of Ramona.

Vultaggio and Wade started walking up the creek, after having parked the Wade car. They agreed to walk about 100 yards apart. Late in the afternoon Vultaggio came to a fork of the creek and continued on, not realizing his pal had gone in a different direction. Some time later he came to the realization that friend Wade was no where to be seen . . . "Lost," he muttered to himself.

The sun was sinking low and soon it would be dark. So Vultaggio headed in the direction he thought was north. He had been warned that rattle snakes were in the area this time of the year, and sure enough he came upon one in his trek and killed it instantly.

It was 5 p.m. when Vultaggio came out of the woods at the Lake Henshaw camp. There he found a California highway patrolman, and told him of his plight. The patrolman drove Vultaggio back to where the Wade car had been parked but the car wasn't there.

The patrolman then took Vultaggio back to the Henshaw Camp. There he waited for some time hoping Wade would show up, but he didn't. Then Vultaggio started to hike to Ramona. It's between 17 and 18 miles from Lake Henshaw to Ramona and a few hills to climb. Our hitchhiker had no luck . . . he walked the entire way. On arriving in Ramona he was fortunate to get a ride all the way to Spring Valley, in a Lemon Grove man's car. When he arrived in Spring Valley he reported Wade's disappearance.

What happened to Wade? After he was unable to find his fishing pal, he went back to his car and took off looking in different directions. After looking for some time he headed home, figuring Vultaggio had possibly gone there.

Arriving back at the Vultaggio home in San Diego, and finding Frank had not reached there, he turned around and went back to Sant Ysabel creek. He searched until 2 o'clock Sunday morning and then gave up, returning home.

HOME ECONOMIST OF THE SAN DIEGO GAS & ELECTRIC COMPANY SUGGESTS:

In this hot-weather season, you will be especially interested in the "Meals in a Jiffy" program I've planned for you on Tuesday, July 29, from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m., in the air-conditioned auditorium of the San Diego Gas & Electric Company's Eastern District Office at 304 North Johnson street, El Cajon. This is another in the "Better Living . . . Automatically" series of programs being presented by the Home Economics Department of the Company.

"Meal in a Jiffy" will feature the quick, easy preparation of foods—not run-of-the-mill cold cuts or out-of-the-can servings, but hot, nutritious, tasty dishes that will delight your family and guests. For instance, I'll prepare braised lobster tails and jumbo pizza loaf, hot potato salad (German style) and lime cucumber salad. For desserts, there'll be apricot crumble pie and coffee ice cream. And, of course I'll include several refreshing summertime beverages. I'm sure you'll leave this meeting with some handy new ideas.

And, in addition, you'll see an "after-the-meal-cleanup-in-a-jiffy" demonstration by Clara Sherbourne, home economist, Hotpoint Appliances Company. She'll show you how her company's newly introduced portable dishwasher can eliminate the time-consuming chore of washing dishes by hand, leaving you more time to spend with your family and guests, for veiwing your favorite television program or reading the newspapers, for gardening or other hobbies.

I'll be looking forward to seeing you at my "Meals in a Jiffy" program. As usual there'll be door prizes awarded and refreshments served. Recipes will also be distributed. And, there'll be lots of parking space provided for your convenience.

Bus Fares Hike Okayed

Permission to the Economy bus line to raise fares was granted by the public utilities commission July 1, it was learned last week. The minimum fare of 15 cents was raised to 20 cents or 5 cents added for each zone. The new raise is effective as of July 21, a spokesman for the company said.

Also permitted, and which will take effect July 28, is one change in the route. Two round trips in the daytime will go on the old route, through Imig Park and Federal boulevard. The other trips will be on the freeway to Winnett street, and then continue on to the city.

Club Member Attends Eastern Convention

Walter Martels, sgt at arms (lifetime) of the Mt. Helix High 12 club which meets each Thursday at Michael's, has returned from a visit with friends and relatives in New England.

Occasion for the trip was a High 12 convention at Toledo so he continued on a route which had some of the elements of a home-coming.

Martels lives on Date street in La Mesa.

☆ In a recent speech, Vice President Nixon said that several publishers had told him that national advertising was down as much as 40 per cent in the first quarter of the year, while local advertising had held up reasonably well. He added: "I think of no more short-sighted action than this on the part of national advertisers. The very people who have most at stake in the survival of our free economy should be betting on its growth rather than hedging on its possible failure."

The paper dollar is now only worth 50 cents in terms of what it would buy in 1940. Those who are hurt by inflation include over 100 million holders of life insurance policies, holders of savings deposits, owners of U. S. Savings Bonds, securities of all kinds and holders of pensions."
